OPPOSITION DEVELOPS TO RE-NOMINATION OF VICE PRES. MARSHALL

Secretary Baker Is Latest Man Proposed, But Declares Himself for Present Incumbent and Party Leaders Say Enough Votes Are Assured to Make Ticket Same as in 1912.

EVERYBODY ENTHUSIASTIC FOR WILSON

Contest Between Thomas B. Love and William Pindexter for Seat as National Committeeman From Texas Is Referred to Sub-Committee and Will Not Be Acted on Until After Adjournment of Convention.

St. Louis, June 12.—Ante-convention discussion centered largely today on moves and suggestions to defeat plans for the renomination of Vice President Marshall and put a new man on the ticket with President Wilson. As the number of delegates to the democratic national convention grow hourly, greater booms for various favorite sons appeared on the surface to rise and fall with the tide of talk.

A move to defeat Vice President Marshall for renomination took well defined form and substance when Henry Morgenthau, who recently gave up his post as ambassador to Turkey that he might engage in the work of re-electing President Wilson, announced that a "stronger man" than Marshall should be named and brought forward Secretary of War Newton D. Baker to run with President Wilson.

News that Morgenthau was backing Secretary Baker created something more than mild discussion, for it was pointed out that Mr. Morgenthau had been connected with the administration and that it might indicate that the naming of Mr. Baker could not be unacceptable.

Mr. Morgenthau hastened, however, to make it clear that he was giving Mr. Baker's nomination on his own responsibility and initiative, solely with the desire of naming the strongest possible candidate for the office.

WANT STRONGER MAN THAN MARSHALL.

National Chairman McCombs said tonight that he had received a telegram from Jacob Schiff, the New York banker, asking that a stronger candidate than Mr. Marshall be named and Mr. Morgenthau also stated that he had a letter from Mr. Schiff also requesting that another than Mr. Marshall be put on the ticket.

Talk that Secretary Baker's name would be presented as a candidate for vice president caused a rush of delegates to national committeemen and other party leaders to know if there had been any change in plans to re-name Mr. Marshall. The information was quickly given that "noses had been counted long ago" and that while one or two names other than Marshall might be heard on the convention floor the vote for him would be virtually unanimous if there is not a nomination by acclamation.

"There will be no hitch to rename the present democratic ticket," said National Committeeman McCombs when asked about the possibilities of opposition to Mr. Marshall. National Committeeman Mack of New York also declared that the talk of upsetting the plan to rename Mr. Marshall was "silly and absurd."

Russian Offensive Is Still Feature of European War

Heavy fighting is in progress over virtually all the entire eastern front from the Gulf of Riga to Bukovina, a distance of between 600 and 700 miles. From Riga to the Jasioldra river, northwest of the Pripiet marshes, the Germans have taken the offensive against the Russians, probably in an effort to divert the attention of the Russians who are in the second week of their drive against the Austro-Hungarians and Germans from the Pripiet marshes southward to Bukovina.

On all sectors of the northern lines the Russians have successfully withstood the German onslaught and driven the attacking forces back. They have even gained ground against them north of the Tirl marsh, southwest of Riga, says Petrograd.

In southwest Russia, in the region of Lutsk, fresh advances against the Austro-Hungarians are reported by the Russian war office, as likewise is the case across the border through East Galicia. In the southern part of this region the Russians are nearing Czernowitz, the capital of the Austrian crown land of Bukovina.

Although the Austrians at numerous points are vigorously counter attacking the only place the Russians have been forced to give ground before them was near Bobulintz, north of Buczacz, in Galicia, where the Austrians were reinforced by German troops. The Russians captured here by the Teutonic allies exceed 1,300. The total of men taken prisoner by the Russians since their offensive began has grown to more than 114,000.

Northeast of Verdun the Germans, with heavy effectives, have thrown successive attacks against the French polition for St. Louis, Secretary Baker announced he will be for Marshall and that the mention of his own name was merely "friendly enterprise." He aims to stop all mention of his name when he reaches this city tomorrow.

Booms for new candidates for vice president still appeared hourly, the last one to come to notice tonight being one for Judge A. M. Jackson of Winfield, Kansas. The delegation from Kansas is to arrive tomorrow.

The Nebraska delegation is instructed to vote as a unit for Gov. John H. Moorehead for the vice presidency but it was reported tonight that when Governor Moorehead reaches St. Louis tomorrow he will agree to renounce his candidacy conditional with the withdrawal of the candidacy of Roger Sullivan of Illinois. As Mr. Sullivan has never seriously been a candidate for vice president, his name being brought forward by Illinois friends simply with the desire to pay the state leader a compliment, it appeared to leaders tonight an agreement with Governor Moorehead could be reached tonight.

A. Mitchell Palmer, national committeeman from Pennsylvania, came in today with part of the delegates from that state and promptly declared that all the delegates are for Marshall. Palmer said he made the announcement to help "kill off the little boomers."

W. J. BRYAN WILL NOT START FIGHT.

William J. Bryan does not expect to precipitate any fight on the party platform. That was the information brought here tonight by a close friend of the former secretary of state. Mr. Bryan is expected here late tonight or tomorrow when Senator Ollie James of Kentucky, President Wilson's choice for permanent chairman; Secretary of War Baker and other notable political leaders are due to arrive.

Senator Stone, who is to be the chairman of the committee on resolutions, issued a statement this afternoon in which he characterized the nomination of Justice Hughes by the republican party as in every way bad and vicious.

"I am inclined to the opinion that it would be wise to so amend the constitution of the United States as to make a justice court supreme, court ineligible to any political office while a member of the court or for a period of five years following his retirement therefrom."

Senator Stone's pronouncement was generally taken to mean here by leaders that the democratic party would probably make a party issue against Justice Hughes on the ground of his nomination to the supreme court bench. Other leaders, however, were not inclined to press this issue, recalling that the party drafted Alton B. Parker when he was

ENTERING POLITICS CAUSES HUGHES TO ACTUALLY SMILE

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT OPENS TEMPORARY HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK CITY — PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN NOT MADE.

New York, June 12.—Charles E. Hughes re-entered politics today apparently with abundant zest. He reached this city early in the day and established temporary headquarters in an uptown hotel and virtually held open house until nearly midnight. Scores of persons on various missions flocked to his room, mostly men who had known him back in the days when he was campaigning for governor of New York. There also were several party leaders among his callers.

Mr. Hughes issued no statement today and expects to issue none until he is formally notified of his nomination. The sub-committee to confer with him as to fixing a date for the ceremony probably will wait on him in a few days and until then, it is understood he will allow his telegram to Chairman Harding of the republican national convention to stand as his declaration of principles without further comment.

Although the nominee's plans are still unsettled as to virtually all details of the campaign, it is likely he will remain in New York until June 20, when he expects to attend a reunion of the class of '81 of Brown university at Providence, R. I. By that time, it is believed, his plans so far as they concern his summer residence and the chief of his campaign will have assumed a more settled status.

To those who knew the nominee as a supreme court justice there was a marked change in his bearing today. His air of studious reserve apparently left him with the doffing of his robes of office. His eye sparkled with enjoyment, his hand had a hearty grasp and there was a smile on his face when he met. He seemed enthusiastic in his welcome of old friends who came to see him after intervals of years.

They came in crowds. One, an old schoolmate who used to call him "Chubby," dropped in after an absence of nearly forty years. Another who said he had not seen him for fifteen years waited an hour in his ante room to remind the nominee of the days when he taught a Bible class in the Fifth Avenue Baptist church here, of which the caller was a member; "the class," he said, "that John D. Rockefeller, Jr. taught afterward." A Texas republican leader, J. E. Latz, Jr., Vernon, trained here from Washington merely to shake hands and say "Texas will be with you."

Roosevelt Still Imitate Sphinx

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was visited at his home at Sagamore Hill today by Jas. H. Garfield and Dean Wm. Draper Lewis. According to his secretary, John W. McGrath, who returned from Chicago, the colonel "had a full and frank discussion" with Mr. Garfield and Dean Lewis "as to what he intends to say" with regard to the political situation and "the time he should say it."

Neither of the visitors would make any statement after their interview with Colonel Roosevelt.

Gifford Pinchot and Wm. Loeb, Jr., called at Sagamore Hill tonight. They were closeted in conference with Colonel Roosevelt for some time but no intimation of their plans was announced.

Miss Davis testified that her chum was happy she did not necessarily seem to be without trouble.

Marian Lambert's Chum Testifies in Orpet Trial

Waukegan, Ill., June 12.—The most important witness in the Orpet case unless the defendant takes the stand himself, was examined today.

She was Josephine Davis, chum of Marion Lambert, the school girl for whose alleged murder February 10 Will H. Orpet is on trial here.

Miss Davis had become the intimate of Marion Lambert "in third year high school," she testified. Her testimony today differed slightly from that told at the inquest and later before the grand jury.

Before the grand jury she testified that at all times Miss Lambert seemed full of the highest spirits. Today she admitted there were times during the winter when she did not appear to have her usual vivacity.

Before the grand jury, Miss Davis testified that on February 9, "we ran down the road glorifying in the bright winter morning." This was the day of Miss Lambert's death. Today she testified that she had been with her by saying that while her chum was happy she did not necessarily seem to be without trouble.

The girls had spent the night at the Lambert home and Marion had answered the telephone call said to have come from Orpet, arranging for the meeting next morning in Helms Woods.

Miss Davis testified that her chum planned to go to a party the night of the ninth and besides her school books carried a bundle containing a white skirt and an apron as she was to assist in serving refreshments.

At the interurban station Miss Davis said Marion suddenly remarked that she had no recitation periods during the forenoon and giving the bundle to Miss Davis, went to Helms Woods.

E. O. Orpet, father of the defendant, concluded his testimony in the forenoon. Dr. E. W. Lacout testified that he had made an autopsy on the body of Miss Lambert.

"There was nothing to indicate that she ever was enceinte," said the doctor.

TRIBUTE TO KITCHENER.

London, June 13.—The Times today prints a sonnet to the late Earl Kitchener, written by Dr. Robert Bridges, the British poet laureate. The sonnet follows:

"Unflinching hero, watchful to foresee,
And face the country's peril where-so'er,
Directing war and peace with equal care,
Till, by long toll ennobled, thou wert he
Whom England call and bade 'set my arm free.'
To obey my will and save my honor—
What day the foe presumed on her despair,
And she herself had trust in none but thee.
Among Herculean deeds and miracle
That mass'd the labor of ten years in one Shall be thy monument. Thy work is done.
Ere we could thank thee and the high sea swell;
Surge unheeding where thy proud ship fell
By some Orkneys ere the set of sun."

Part of the increasing apprehension here is due to the renewed raid in the Laredo region. Several reports dealing with the situation there have been received. Officials declined to reveal details, but they gave the impression of having reason to believe a serious purpose was behind the bandit raid on the Coleman ranch. Three raiders were killed and three captured, one report said, adding that they attempted to burn the railroad bridge near Laredo but failed.

JAKE WOLTERS WILL SUPPORT HENRY TO SUCCEED CULBERSON

The senatorial candidacy of Robert Lee Henry of this city received a tremendous boom when the announcement was made last night that Col. Jacob F. Wolters of Houston intended to throw his support to Mr. Henry.

Mr. Wolters is one of the best known and most powerful leaders of the anti-prohibition wing of the democratic party in South Texas. He stands especially strong with the large German population of the state.

Up to the present time he has been a strong supporter of Charles A. Culberson, the present senator from Texas. It is understood that the inability of Mr. Culberson to come to Texas and present his claims to the voters of the state was the principal reason that he threw his support to Mr. Henry.

It is claimed by Mr. Henry's friends that the loss of Colonel Wolters' support in South Texas will virtually put Senator Culberson out of the running, and that the withdrawal of his candidacy may be looked for at any time within the next week or two.

Some who occupy high positions in the councils of the party are authority for the statement that the example set by Mr. Wolters in coming out for Henry will be followed in a short time by similar announcements from political leaders of equal prominence in Fort Worth, Dallas, and other sections of the state.

Mr. Wolters change of front came in the form of a telegram to a local newspaper man in response to a query as to his position in the senatorial race. The telegram follows:

"Replying to your telegram I beg to advise that I shall support Robert L. Henry for the United States senate."

FIFTEEN HUNDRED MORE TROOPS SENT TO MEXICAN BORDER

OFFICIALS MAKE NO ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE UNEASINESS OVER SITUATION AND FEAR POSSIBLE ATTACK ON GENERAL PERSHING'S COMMAND.

Washington, June 12.—With fifteen hundred additional regular troops ordered to the Mexican border tonight and reports of the rapid spread of anti-American feeling continuing to pour in from consuls all over Northern Mexico, administration officials made no attempt to disguise their uneasiness. It was officially admitted that there is growing alarm over what the agitation may produce and the possibility of an attack on General Pershing's expedition.

Part of the increasing apprehension here is due to the renewed raid in the Laredo region. Several reports dealing with the situation there have been received. Officials declined to reveal details, but they gave the impression of having reason to believe a serious purpose was behind the bandit raid on the Coleman ranch. Three raiders were killed and three captured, one report said, adding that they attempted to burn the railroad bridge near Laredo but failed.

The new force sent to join General Funston's border patrol, Secretary Baker said, was to fill in gaps in the guard such as that near Laredo, Mexico, and to be composed of ten companies of coast artillery and a battalion of engineers. The artillerymen will be sent from Fortifications between Portland, Maine, and Sandy Hook and engineers go from barracks to this city.

The secretary said there was no present intention of calling out additional national guard regiments for border duty.

MEXICANS FIRE ON CAVALRY PATROL.

General Mann, commanding at Laredo, reported today that a patrol of the cavalrymen was fired on during the night of June 10 near the town of Hachita, and Private W. L. Saunders, Troop K, 12th cavalry, slightly wounded. Two mounted Mexicans who did the firing escaped.

A message from Captain Burrage, commanding the battleship Nebraska at Vera Cruz, said there was considerable unrest in that region due apparently to the currency situation. There were no evidences of unfriendliness toward the Americans, the message said, but it added that the Carranza government had been sending troops and ammunition inland.

Captain Burrage did not know the object of these troop movements. The state department, through Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City has called the attention of the de facto government to the anti-American outbursts which for nearly two weeks have been spreading rapidly. Mexican towns have held mass meetings and protested against the continued presence of American troops in Mexico. In two or three instances American property has been attacked but no threats against lives of Americans have been reported. The reports of consular telling of the agitation were turned over to Carranza officials more as a matter of information than as representations. With his regular troops in control, apparently Carranza has earnestly tried in most cases to prevent the holding of protest meetings and in some places contemplated meetings and parades have been prevented. There are instances, however, where the troops appear to have stood idly by.

The agitators stirred up antagonism against the United States. Officials have been unable to determine the inspiration behind the sudden outbreak of anti-American feeling or estimate the ability of Carranza to protect American lives and property. They feel that the real danger lies in the possible action of irregular forces now under the Carranza banner but whose commanders yield only doubtful allegiance to the central government.

Because of the economic conditions in Mexico, officials feel that the possibility of serious trouble is not even remote. The currency situation is acute and the people are restless and easily stirred to outbreaks.

LANSING WORKS ON REPLY TO CARRANZA.

Secretary Lansing still is at work on his reply to the Carranza note demanding withdrawal of American forces. He again declined today to discuss it in any respect. It is not known whether the present disturbed condition which has arisen since the reply was started will affect the tone of the document. It is indicated the reply may not be sent for a week or ten days.

The coast artillery ordered to the border today includes two companies from Portland, Me., two from Boston, two from Narragansett Bay, two from Long Island, one from Eastern New York, one from South New York, and one from Sandy Hook, approximately 1,500 men compose this provisional infantry regiment. The engineer battalion, about 500 strong, is composed of companies A, B, C, and D.

The Carranza troops have repulsed the rebel movement in the Matamoros region, according to today's advices. The rebels have been driven from the town of Tehuantepec, captured last week, and are no longer threatening Salina Cruz, the Pacific terminal of the railway.

State department reports indicate that Carranza's control over certain state governors is waning. The government has issued decrees and even currency without the authority or approval of the central government.

The currency situation in Vera Cruz mentioned in Captain Burrage's dispatch, has become more acute and even the issue of large denomination bills put out by Carranza while he made his capital there. Conditions in Mexico City are reported as discouraging both economically and politically. While no appeal to Americans to leave Mexico has been made, it is known that consuls are using every effort to induce them to depart. It is estimated that 5,000 Americans still are beyond the border—one thousand in Mexico City, 2,000 in the Tampico region and the others scattered in various places.

CARRANZISTAS AND JAPS AMONG MEXICAN RAIDERS

LOUIS DE LA ROSA BEING HELPED BY CARRANZA OFFICERS

BANDIT REPORTED ARRESTED AT MONTEREY BUT STORY NOT CONFIRMED—RAIDERS OF COLEMAN RANCH ALMOST ALL ACCOUNTED FOR.

San Antonio, June 12.—Army officers here are convinced that Luis De La Rosa has secured from certain officers in Carranza's army promises of support in any border warfare that he may begin against Americans. Agents of the department of justice and of the state department have sent to Washington and to army headquarters here evidence that is regarded by officers here as reliable that De La Rosa has been assured that he will be unmolested by de facto government troops and from at least one general officer of Carranza's army the promise of active co-operation.

Not all Carranza's officers are said to be in the plot and General Funston credited General Ricaut with all sincerity when he told General Mann at Laredo that he would make such disposition of his troops along the border as to prevent if possible any raiding by De La Rosa or other bandit leaders.

REPORT OR ARREST IS NOT CONFIRMED.

The report that De La Rosa had been arrested at Monterey had not been confirmed tonight. He had been entering and leaving Monterey with impunity for some time and army officers here have taken that as an indication that only feeble efforts were being made to capture him.

A large part of the little band of raiders that appeared on Coleman ranch has been eliminated and armed civilians and American soldiers were scouring the country in the vicinity of Webb late today in an effort to wipe out the remainder. It was feared here that De La Rosa's plan of campaign might include the dispatching of bands of such small numbers that running them down would be more difficult than if larger units were employed. From Brownsville to points in the Big Bend district American soldiers now are patrolling the Rio Grande to prevent the crossing of other raiders into the military fence is far from tight and General Funston's insistence that he be given more troops will not, it was stated tonight, be lessened by the sending of the remainder of the army artillerymen and a battalion of engineers.

COAST ARTILLERY TO BORDER STATIONS.

The coast artillerymen that have been ordered here will be sent immediately to border stations but to just what points has not been determined. The engineering force probably will be stationed in the vicinity of one or more of the bridges crossing the Rio Grande.

Passengers coming from Mexico report increasing economic difficulties in Mexico and a growing anti-Americanism, especially in the northern part of the republic. Official sanction has been secured for holding the anti-

BANDIT IDENTIFIED AS HIGH OFFICER IN CARRANZA ARMY

SEVERAL JAPANESE ALSO IN PARTY—THREE KILLED WHILE ATTEMPTING TO BURN RAILROAD BRIDGE—FLAG CAPTURED WAS ADOPTED BY DE LA ROSA.

Laredo, June 12.—One of the three Mexican bandits killed today in the chase of outlaws, who raided the T. A. Coleman ranch, northwest of Laredo, Sunday morning, wore a Carranza uniform bearing the insignia of a Carranza lieutenant colonel, according to a message here tonight. One of the bandits taken prisoner and identified the body at Webb, Texas, this afternoon as Lieutenant Colonel Villareal of the Carranza army.

Cenobio Mendez, a Mexican cowboy, who was captured by the bandits in the raid on the Coleman ranch and escaped when the Mexicans were surprised attempting to burn the bridge on the International and Great Northern railroad near Webb, tonight said the bandits talked freely of their purpose to burn the bridge and wreck a train after which they intended killing and robbing the passengers. At Enclinal, just east of Laredo, the bandits, according to Mendez, permitted him to write a farewell letter to his wife, the bandits having previously stated they intended to kill him. The letter was given to Villareal, who promised to deliver it to Mendez's wife. This letter was found on the bandit's body identified as that of Villareal.

DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLER OF BANDIT.

Deputy Sheriff Dolores of Laredo headed the posse which intercepted the bandits at the bridge and it was one of the deputies' shots which killed Villareal, according to reports here. Villareal and his band fought desperately and only tried to escape when their leader had been killed. Two other Mexicans were killed before the bandits retreated.

Villareal was about 25 years of age and the three prisoners at Webb apparently were between 25 and 30. American soldiers are stationed at Webb tonight owing to fears that the town will be attacked by bandits in revenge for the killing of their leader.

Interest attaches to the whereabouts of Capt. Ola W. Bell and his detachment of the fourteenth United States cavalry, pursuing bandits who during the past forty-eight hours have made several raids in the border section west and northwest of Laredo, resulting in the stealing of several horses from Texas ranches, and the death of at least three Mexican bandits and the capture of two. Reports still are vague and it is not known definitely whether troops or civilian posses killed the three bandits. No American casualty have been reported.

The bandits, variously reported to number from eleven to fifteen, including several Japanese, made their first raid early Saturday night in the vicinity of Palafex, Texas, fifty miles west of Laredo. There they captured

Scores of persons on various missions flocked to his room, mostly men who had known him back in the days when he was campaigning for governor of New York. There also were several party leaders among his callers.

Mr. Hughes issued no statement today and expects to issue none until he formally notified of his nomination. The sub-committee to confer with him as to fixing a date for the ceremony probably will wait on him in a few days and until then, it is understood, he will be a man of few words. Harding of the republican national convention to stand as his declaration of principles without further comment.

Although the nominee's plans are still unsettled as to virtually all details of the campaign, it is likely he will remain in New York until June 20, when he expects to attend a reunion of the class of '81 of Brown university at Providence, R. I. By that time, it is believed, his plans so far as they concern his summer residence and the chief of his campaign will have assumed a more settled status.

To those who knew the nominee as a supreme court justice there was a marked change in his bearing today. His air of studious reserve apparently left him with the doffing of his robes of office. His eye sparkled with enjoyment, his hand had a hearty grasp and there was a smile for every man he met. He seemed enthusiastic in his welcome of old friends who came to see him after intervals of years.

They came in crowds. One, an old schoolmate who used to call him "Charley," dropped in after an absence of nearly forty years. Another who said he had not seen him for fifteen years waited an hour in his ante room to remind the nominee of the days when he taught a Bible class in the Fifth Avenue Baptist church here, of which the caller was a member; "the class," he said, "that John D. Rockefeller, Jr. taught afterward." A Texas republican leader, J. Lee Vannoy, trained here from Washington merely to shake hands and say "Texas will be with you."

Roosevelt Still Imitate Sphinx

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was visited at his home at Sagamore Hill today by Jas. K. Garfield and Dean Wm. Draper Lewis. According to his secretary, John W. McGrath, who returned from Chicago, the colonel "had a full and frank discussion" with Mr. Garfield and Dean Lewis "as to what he intends to say" with regard to the political situation and "the time he should say it."

Neither of the visitors would make any statement after their interview with Colonel Roosevelt.

Gifford Pinchot and Wm. Loeb, Jr., called at Sagamore Hill today. They were closeted in conference with Colonel Roosevelt for some time but no intimation of their plans was announced.

Marian Lambert's Chum Testifies in Orpet Trial

Waukegan, Ill., June 12.—The most important witness in the Orpet case unless the defendant takes the stand himself, was examined today.

She was Josephine Davis, chum of Marion Lambert, the school girl for whose alleged murder February 10 Will H. Orpet is on trial here. Miss Davis had become the intimate of Marion Lambert "in third year high school," she said. Her testimony today differed slightly from that told at the inquest and later before the grand jury.

Before the grand jury she testified that at all times Miss Lambert seemed full of the highest spirits. Today she admitted there were times during the winter when she did not appear to have her usual vivacity.

Before the grand jury, Miss Davis testified that on February 9, "we ran down the road glorifying in the bright winter morning." This was the day of Marion Lambert's death. Today she admitted the testimony but qualified it by saying that while her chum was happy she did not necessarily seem to be without trouble.

The girls had spent the night at the Lambert home and Marion had answered the telephone call said to have come from Orpet, arranging for the meeting next morning in Helms woods.

Miss Davis testified that her chum planned to go to a party the night of the ninth and besides her school books carried a bundle containing a white skirt and an apron as she was to assist in serving refreshments.

At the inquest station Miss Davis said Marion suddenly remarked that she had no recitation periods during the forenoon and giving the bundle to Miss Davis, went to Helms woods. E. O. Orpet, father of the defendant, concluded his testimony in the forenoon. Dr. E. W. Lacout testified to making an autopsy on the body of Miss Lambert.

"There was nothing to indicate that she ever was enciente," said the doctor.

TRIBUTE TO KITCHENER.

London, June 12.—The Times today prints a sonnet to the late Earl Kitchener, written by Dr. Robert Bridges, the British poet laureate. The sonnet follows:

"Unflinching hero, watchful to foresee,
And face the country's peril where-so'er,
Directing war and peace with equal care,
Till, by long toil ennobled, thou wert here
Whom England call and bade 'set my arm free,
'To show my will and save my honor or fair'
What day the foe presumed on her despair,
And she herself had trust in none but thee.
Among Herculean deeds and miracle
That mass'd the labor of ten years in one
Shalt be thy monument. Thy work in high sea swell;
Surgeeth unheeding where thy proud ship fell
By thine Orkneys ere the set of sun."

JAKE WOLTERS WILL SUPPORT HENRY TO SUCCEED CULBERSON

The senatorial candidacy of Robert Lee Henry of this city received a tremendous boom when the announcement was made last night that Col. Jacob P. Wolters of Houston intended to throw his support to Mr. Henry.

Mr. Wolters is one of the best known and most powerful leaders of the anti-prohibition wing of the democratic party in South Texas. He stands especially strong with the large German population of the state.

Up to the present time he has been a strong supporter of Charles A. Culberson, the present senator from Texas. It is understood that the inability of Mr. Culberson to come to Texas and present his claims to the voters of the state was the principal reason that he withdrew from the race, transferring his support to Mr. Henry.

It is claimed by Mr. Henry's friends that the loss of Colonel Wolters' support in South Texas will virtually put Culberson out of the running, and that the withdrawal of his candidacy may be looked for at any time within the next week or two.

Some who occupy high positions in the affairs of the party are authorities for the statement that the example set by Mr. Wolters in coming out for Henry will be followed in a short time by similar announcements from political leaders of equal prominence in Fort Worth, Dallas, and other sections of the state.

Mr. Wolters change of front came in the form of a telegram to a local newspaper in response to a query as to his position in the senatorial race. The telegram follows:

"Replying to your telegram I beg to advise that I shall support Robert L. Henry for the United States Senate."

"J. P. WOLTERS."

FIFTEEN HUNDRED MORE TROOPS SENT TO MEXICAN BORDER

OFFICIALS MAKE NO ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE UNEASINESS OVER SITUATION AND FEAR POSSIBLE ATTACK ON GENERAL PERSHING'S COMMAND.

Washington, June 12.—With fifteen hundred additional regular troops ordered to the Mexican border tonight and reports of the rapid spread of anti-American feeling continuing to pour in from consuls all over Northern Mexico, administration officials made no attempt to disguise their uneasiness. It was officially admitted that there is growing alarm over what the agitation may produce and the possibility of an attack on General Pershing's expedition.

Part of the increasing apprehension here is due to the renewed raids in the Laredo region. Several reports dealing with the situation there have been received. Officials declined to reveal details, but they gave the impression of having reason to believe a serious purpose was behind the bandit raid on the Coleman ranch. Three raiders were killed and three captured, one report said, adding that they attempted to burn a railroad bridge near Laredo but failed.

The new force sent to join General Funston's border patrol, Secretary Baker said, was to fill in gaps in the guard such as that near Laredo. It will be composed of ten companies of coast artillery and a battalion of engineers. The artillerymen will be withdrawn from fortifications between Portland, Maine, and Sandy Hook and engineers go from barracks to this city.

The secretary said there was no present intention of calling out additional national guard regiments for border duty.

MEXICANS FIRE ON CAVALRY PATROL.

General Mann, commanding at Laredo, reported today that a patrol of three cavalrymen was fired upon during the night of June 10 near the town of Hachita, and Private W. L. Saunders, troop K, 12th cavalry, slightly wounded. The two mounted Mexicans who did the firing escaped.

A message from Captain Burrage, commanding the battleship Nebraska at Vera Cruz, said there was considerable unrest in that region, due apparently to the currency situation. There were no evidences of unfriendliness toward the Americans, the message said. It added that the Carranza government had been sending troops and arms to the currency situation.

Captain Burrage did not know the object of these troop movements. The state department through Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City has been attempting to point out to the Carranza government the anti-American attitude which for nearly two weeks have been spreading rapidly. Many towns have held mass meetings and protests against the continued presence of American troops in Mexico. In two or three instances American property has been attacked but no threats against lives of Americans have been reported. The reports of consuls tell of the agitation being turned over to the Carranza officials more as a matter of information than as representations. With his regular troops in control, apparently Carranza has earnestly tried in most cases to prevent the holding of protest meetings and in some places contemplated meetings and parades have been prevented. There are instances, however, where the agitators have stood idly by while the agitators stirred up the antagonism against the United States.

Officials have been unable to determine the inspiration behind the sudden outbreak of anti-American feeling or estimate the ability of Carranza to protect American lives and property. They feel that the real danger lies in the possible action of irregular forces now under the Carranza banner but whose commanders yield only doubtful allegiance to the central government.

LANSING WORKS ON REPLY TO CARRANZA.

Secretary Lansing still is at work on his reply to Carranza, not demanding withdrawal of American forces. He again declined today to discuss it in any respect. It is not known whether the present disturbed condition of affairs in northern Mexico was started by the reply to Carranza. It is indicated the reply may not be sent for a week or ten days.

The coast artillery ordered to the border today includes two companies from Portland, Me., two from Boston, two from Narragansett Bay, two from Long Island, one from Eastern New York, one from South New York, and one from Sandy Hook, approximately 1,900 will compose this provision of infantry regiment. The engineer battalion, about 500 strong, is composed of companies A, B, C, and D.

The Carranza troops have repelled the new rebel movement in the Cuernavaca region, according to today's advices. The rebels have been driven from the town of Tehuantepec, captured last week, and are no longer threatening Saltillo, Coahuila, the Pacific terminal of the railway.

State department reports indicate that Carranza's control over certain state governors is waning. The government has issued decrees and an currency situation is acute and the people are restless and easily stirred to outbreaks.

The currency situation in Vera Cruz mentioned in Captain Burrage's dispatch, is described as due to the issuance of large denomination bills put out by Carranza while he made his capital there. Conditions in Mexico City are reported as discouraging both economical and political. While no appeal to Americans to leave Mexico has been made, it is known that consuls are using every effort to induce them to depart. It is estimated that 5,000 Americans still are beyond the border—one thousand in Mexico City, 2,000 in the Tampico region and the others scattered in various places.

LOUIS DE LA ROSA BEING HELPED BY CARRANZA OFFICERS

BANDIT REPORTED ARRESTED AT MONTEREY BUT STORY NOT CONFIRMED—RAIDERS OF COLEMAN RANCH ALMOST ALL ACCOUNTED FOR.

San Antonio, June 12.—Army officers here are convinced that Luis De La Rosa has secured from certain officers in Carranza's army promises of support in any order warlike that he may begin against Americans. Agents of the department of justice and of the state department have sent to Washington and to army headquarters here evidence that is regarded by officers here as reliable that De La Rosa has been assured that he will be unmolested by de facto government troops and from at least one general officer of Carranza's army the promise of active co-operation.

Not all Carranza's officers are said to be in the plot and General Funston credited General Ricaut with all sincerity when he told General Mann at Laredo that he would make such disposition of his troops along the border as to prevent if possible any raiding by De La Rosa or other bandit leaders.

REPORT OR ARREST IS NOT CONFIRMED.

The report that De La Rosa had been arrested at Monterey had not been confirmed tonight. He had been entering and leaving Monterey with impunity for some time and army officers here have taken that as an indication that only feeble efforts were being made to capture him.

A large part of the little band of raiders that appeared on Coleman ranch has been eliminated and armed civilians and American soldiers were scouring the country in the vicinity of Webb late today in an effort to wipe out the remainder. It was feared here that De La Rosa's place would be taken by other bandit leaders who might include the dispatching of bands of such small numbers that running them down would be more difficult than if larger units were employed. From Brownsville to points in the Big Bend district American soldiers now are patrolling the Rio Grande to prevent the crossing of other raiders but the military force is far from tight and General Funston's insistence that he be given more troops will not, it was stated tonight, be lessened by the sending of 1,000 more coast artillerymen and a battalion of engineers.

COAST ARTILLERY TO BORDER STATIONS.

The coast artillerymen that have been ordered here will be sent immediately to border stations but to just what points has not been determined. The engineering force probably will be stationed in the vicinity of one or more of the bridges crossing the Rio Grande.

Passengers coming from Mexico report increasing economic difficulties in Mexico and a growing anti-American feeling in the northern part of the republic. Official sanction has been secured for holding the anti-

SEVERAL JAPANESE ALSO IN PARTY—THREE KILLED WHILE ATTEMPTING TO BURN RAILROAD BRIDGE—FLAG CAPTURED WAS ADOPTED BY DE LA ROSA.

Laredo, June 12.—One of the three Mexican bandits killed today in the chase of outlaws, who raided the T. A. Coleman ranch, northwest of Laredo, Sunday morning, wore a Carranza uniform including the insignia of Carranza lieutenant colonel, according to a message here tonight. One of the bandits taken prisoner identified the body at Webb, Texas, this afternoon as Lieutenant Colonel Villareal of the Carranza army.

Cenobio Mendez, a Mexican cowboy, who was captured by the bandits in the raid on the Coleman ranch and escaped when the Mexicans were surprised attempting to burn the bridge on the International and Great Northern railroad near Webb, tonight said the bandits talked freely of their purpose to burn the bridge and wreck a train after which they intended killing and robbing the passengers. At Encinal, just east of Laredo, the bandits, according to Mendez, permitted him to write a farewell letter to his wife, the bandits having previously stated they intended to kill him. The letter was given to Villareal, who promised to deliver it to Mendez's wife. This letter was found on the bandit's body identified as that of Villareal.

DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLER OF BANDIT.

Deputy Sheriff Dolores of Laredo headed the posse which intercepted the bandits at the bridge and it was one of the deputies' shots which killed Villareal, according to reports here. Villareal and his band fought desperately and only tried to escape when their leader had been killed. Two other Mexicans were killed before the bandits retreated.

Villareal was about 25 years of age and the three prisoners at Webb apparently are between 25 and 30.

American soldiers are stationed at Webb tonight owing to fears that the town will be attacked by bandits in revenge for the killing of their leader.

Interest attaches tonight in the whereabouts of Capt. Oia V. Bell and his detachment of the fourth United States cavalry, pursuing bandits who during the past forty-eight hours have made several raids in the border section west and northwest of Laredo, resulting in the stealing of several horses from Texas ranches, and the death of at least three Mexican bandits and the capture of two. Reports still are vague and it is not known definitely whether troops or civilian posse killed the three bandits. No American casualty have been reported.

The bandits, variously reported to number from eleven to fifteen, including several Japanese, made their first raid early Saturday night in the vicinity of Palafos, Texas, fifty miles west of Laredo. There they captured

State Wide Prohibition And Robertson Law to Be Voted on in July Primary

Dallas, June 12.—The question of statewide prohibition will be submitted to the voters of Texas in the democratic primary on July 22, as a result of the action of the state executive committee here today. This is the fourth time in nine years "submission" has been made to the people.

Today's decision came as the result of a hot sub-committee contest on the question of the submission of the prohibition question to the voters of Texas. The sub-committee which recommended a "straw vote" on the question of keeping the Robertson insurance law, with its compulsory insurance feature, on the state books of Texas.

The August state democratic convention will be held in Houston this year. This recommendation was made by a sub-committee which heard the claims of Galveston, Dallas and Fort Worth. Houston offered $1000 in cash and the expenses of the state executive committee and their families, to get the convention.

A fourth sub-committee recommended that those candidates filling their names with Chairman Paul Waples constitute the official ballot for the July Primary. In addition to these names, the constitutional amendment as respecting prohibition and the "straw vote" on the Robertson law were also placed on the ballot.

Dallas was an active candidate for the convention but in an early appearance that Houston would be selected.

The Gibson bill seeks to amend the Robertson insurance law which requires foreign insurance companies doing business in Texas to invest in the state a certain per cent of the earnings from insurance written in the state.

Following is the official ballot to be voted on at the primary in July, as approved by the state executive committee:

Directors' Meeting of Cotton Palace Is Postponed

The directors of the Texas Cotton Palace association were to have met last night but the meeting has been postponed, by order of President Tom F. Bush, on account of the absence of the secretary, S. N. Mayfield. The meeting will be held within a day or two in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The matters up for discussion will relate, in the main, to finances.

W. J. Neale, who has recently returned from New York, will probably report on his commission to confer with agencies looking for the biggest bands of the country.

The Folly Of Taking Digestive Pills

A Warning to Dyspeptics.

The habit of taking digestive pills after meals makes chronic dyspepsia of many thousands of men and women because artificial digestants, drugs and medicines have practically no influence upon the excessively acid condition of the stomach contents which is the cause of most forms of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The after dinner pill merely lessens the sensitiveness of the stomach nerves and thus gives a false sense of freedom from pain. If those who are subject to indigestion, gas, flatulence, belching, bloating, heartburn, etc., after eating, would get about an ounce of pure bisulphate of magnesia from their druggist and take a teaspoonful in a little water after meals, there would be no further necessity for drugs or medicines because bisulphate of magnesia instantly neutralizes stomach acidity, stops food fermentation and thus restores normal, painless digestion by enabling the stomach to do its work without hindrance.

INDOOR LIFE MAKES FAT

TRY OIL OF KOREIN TO KEEP WEIGHT DOWN, OR TO REDUCE SUPERFLUOUS FAT.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired indoors is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air is said to weaken the excretory power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any persons who are satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to Morrison Drug Co., or a good druggist and get a box of oil of korein capsules and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. Improved digestion and a return of the old energy; footsteps become lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.

ONLY CONTEST IS FROM HAWAII.

The national committee held a session today as a preliminary to the opening of the convention on Wednesday and formally arranged for the temporary organization. Former Governor Martin Glynn of New York was officially named as temporary chairman and the man who will start the convention and campaign with the "keynote" speech. Only one seat—that in the Hawaii delegation—among the 1932 in the convention was contested before the committee. Two contests for places on the new national committee were deferred for decision by the new committee when it meets immediately after the final convention session.

St. Louis took on a real convention atmosphere today. Hotels were thronged with arriving delegates, bands played and marching clubs paraded. Flags were flung from every pole and streamers of bunting decorated buildings and hotels.

The convention hall is ready for the delegates and scores of them visited it today. There is the usual heavy demand for tickets and national committeemen who obtained tickets were other sides of politics than the building of platforms and the making of staves.

LOVE-POINDEXTER CONTEST IS REFERRED.

Cato Sells, Texas national committeeman, informed the national committee that Thomas Love and William Pointexter, who were contesting the seat for national committeeman at his successor, had agreed to refer the matter to the national committee to decide whether the seat for national committeeman should be referred to the national committee, which will meet after the last session of the convention.

BELIEVED DELEON CAME TOO EARLY

Jacksonville Capitalist After Test Pays Good Compliment to Natural Vitality.

This is the compliment that Mr. Joseph Bell, a Jacksonville capitalist, whose address is Highway Branch P. O., pays to natural Vitalitas after he had taken the treatment:

"If Ponce DeLeon had waited until natural Vitalitas had been discovered I am sure he could have returned saying that he had really found the 'Fountain of Youth.' Vitalitas is the greatest and grandest remedy on the market. For years I have been bothered with rheumatism, indigestion and dizziness. I decided to give Vitalitas a trial, but first I found out whether it contained any alcohol, and to my surprise it was what DeLeon was looking for, a natural remedy in every respect. Now listen. I do not know that I ever had rheumatism; my indigestion has left me completely, those dizzy spells are gone; in fact, I feel all made over."

Multitudes of southern people are daily paying just such compliments as the foregoing to natural Vitalitas. It is a wonderful tonic and corrective and is Nature's shortest road to relief from many chronic ills. You can get Vitalitas at Powers-Kelly Drug Co., and all other druggists.

La Reforma is regarded as a semi-official newspaper.

two American cowboys who later escaped. The raid occurred on Sunday morning at the T. A. Coleman ranch, forty miles northwest of Laredo, where the bandits attempted to drive off eighty horses. Reports last night indicated they failed in their purpose and that the bandits themselves succeeded in re-entering Mexico. Advances today were to the effect that the outlaws had not crossed to the south side of the Rio Grande but had attempted to burn bridges on the International and Great Northern line east of Laredo.

A flag captured by the civilian posse who captured the bandits, three of whom were killed, is red with diagonal white stripes and bears the words "Liberty, equality and independence. The flag is said to have been adopted by De La Rosa and will be submitted as evidence at the trials of the bandits.

Waco Will Get Credit for 115 Recruits at Training Camp

The Waco recruiting station of the civilian's camp which began at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, yesterday will receive credit for 115 recruits, although the actual attendance was thirty-seven from this district. This condition grows out of the fact that a large number of the men in the two militia companies, K and G, had signed for the civilian camp before they were called to the border for active service. Because of the fact that these men had signified their intention of taking the summer course in army tactics and are now serving, this division is given credit by the army department for the total number of enlistments in the standings of the various civilian camps. Charles P. Link has had the recruiting in charge.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

The auto chemical was called to 611 South Eighth street yesterday, but the damage was slight. A mattress and some papers in a room caught fire, but the total damage was probably about $25.

The new city equalization board was sworn in yesterday by City Secretary John C. Davis, the board consisting of S. H. Clayton, John C. Walton and E. H. Bruvette. The board probably will meet next Thursday and begin its work.

The general meeting of the Y. M. B. L. comes tonight, at the rooms on Austin street. Many matters will receive attention and there will of course be discussion of the big trade excursion of next Thursday to Palestine.

R. B. Spencer Has Built Up Great Lumber Concern From A Very Modest Beginning

It is not every man who realizes the fact that Waco is rapidly attracting men of large affairs, constructive ability, and of commanding importance in the initiation and management of big concerns.

An illustration of what Waco is doing in this direction is afforded in the meeting here last of the past week of the yard managers and partners of R. B. Spencer & Co., the great lumber concern. This gathering, bringing together the men who are at the head of the thirty-five yards of the company, with R. B. Spencer of Waco as the central figure and the owner of 80 per cent of the stock of the business, and who is also a large land owner, the possessor of brick buildings and who is widely known as the lender of money, emphasized Waco again, for R. B. Spencer, the leader in this big business, resides here, having bought the beautiful residence formerly belonging to Sam Sanger on Columbus street at the corner of Fourteenth. In addition to his holdings of retail lumber business he has a wholesale sash and door business at Stamford, Texas, and bank interests in most of the towns in which he operates lumber yards.

In the home office at Waco the following officers are found: R. B. Spencer, president; J. J. Durham, assistant general manager; H. L. Webb, auditor and treasurer; C. L. Webb, secretary and purchasing agent.

SPENCER BANQUET BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

But more about the business part of the matter later. At present reference is to be made to the pleasant gathering here of the managers and partners, some of whom brought their wives with them. This was not only a business meeting, but it was a most delightful social occasion as well. The various units of the big concern got together in the home town of the president, became better acquainted and enjoyed the entire occasion immensely. In addition to the discussion of business matters among the men, which will bring about greater efficiency and still better system, there were many agreeable social diversions. One of these was the luncheon served by the president, R. B. Spencer, to the visitors at the Raleigh hotel. This banquet was a brilliant affair and was held in the gold room Friday night, June 9, at 8 p. m. The toastmaster was C. G. Foust, and the following responded in well chosen words: toasts: J. J. Durham, T. J. Jordan, John A. Couch, Mrs. Nannie W. Curtis, John A. Shaffer, J. B. Coleman, W. E. Black, R. B. Spencer and Mrs. R. B. Spencer.

President Spencer also had the visitors at his palatial Columbus street residence, where a social hour was enjoyed, refreshments were served, and a general good time followed. On Thursday night a theater party at the Orpheum was enjoyed.

Other firms and citizens also extended courtesies to the visitors, one of these being a visit tendered by Messrs. Cameron & Bolton, who had them go through the Waco Sash and Door factory on Jackson street in the southwestern part of the city. The visitors spent three days in Waco, and the time was all full with business and pleasure, there being a proper intermingling of the two. Nearly all of the thirty-five yards were represented, and when they departed it was with a feeling of pride in the big concern of which each is a part, and also a feeling of increased loyalty to the man of industrial genius and wonderful organizing ability who laid the foundations and built the great structure—R. B. Spencer of Waco.

Among those who were in Waco and enjoyed the business and social sessions were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Foust, Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jordan, Hico; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Abbott, Stamford; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Couch, Haskell; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. James, Kerens; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Berry, Hamlin; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Webb, J. J. Durham, Waco; W. B. Hagens, Anson; M. Robertson, Aspermont; Pat Bryan, Boyd; W. H. Miller, Clyde; L. W. Edwards, Dawson; H. H. Bryan, Granbury; Robert Bryan, Godley; E. J. Albers, Hutto; Eric Boettcher, Hico; John O. Shaffer, Irene; Ed Bolding, Rascas; H. J. Leach, Garrett; F. E. Criswell, Mart; C. A. Goodman, Malone; J. B. Coleman, Meridian; N. Hendrick, Marlow; Paul Bryan, Santo; Clint Davison, Taylor; Charles Gilliland, Tolaz; C. A. Brotherton, Walcott; E. L. Kurth, Kelly; Mrs. Albert Boggs, Charles Evans, W. J. Thrasher, F. E. Holland, Miss Katharine Spencer, Waco; Miss Katherine Foust, Dublin; Richard Spencer, Waco.

CORPORATION HAS MODEST START.

R. B. Spencer, who founded the great lumber business of R. B. Spencer & Co., and who owns 80 per cent of this business in addition to immense holdings in other lines, started first in the lumber business at Dublin, Texas, in 1890, this Erath county town being the foundation soil so to speak on which the immense structure has since been reared, and which now embraces thirty-five yards scattered over a wide and fertile area in Texas. The second yard was established at Granbury, the spread being very rapid under the skillful handling of broad and constructive policies of Mr. Spencer. This continued until now nearly two score yards are in operation in Texas and Oklahoma, the volume of business being tremendous.

Mr. Spencer remained in Dublin until about seven years ago, when in looking about for a field for larger operations, he decided that Waco had the future, and richly wisely did he decide in this as in other matters, indicating his clear judgment and hard common sense once more. While in Dublin Mr. Spencer was president of the Citizens National bank, a bank, and was the mayor of that beautiful and thriving little city for eight years.

Coming to Waco in 1909 Mr. R. B. Spencer was elected vice president of the Central Texas bank, which is now the Central Texas Exchange National bank, with a capital of $600,000, a position which he still holds. He was also president of the Central Texas Exchange National Trust company, with a capital of $350,000, until the concern liquidated; he was also president of the Farmers and Merchants State bank at Brenham until that bank liquidated. He was active in other directions also, and was the first president of the Waco Morning News company.

MR. SPENCER IS COURTY GENTLEMAN.

While known as one of the best business men in Texas, Mr. Spencer yet takes time for the social amenities and enjoyments of life, and is a man of easy approach, much affability and geniality, and quickly relaxes from the distraction of business, which probably accounts for his uniform good humor and good health. The expressions of the people of Dublin, when Mayor R. B. Spencer announced his intention of removing to another field, showed the deep regret which was felt in every quarter, and testimony was borne to the manner in which he had labored to upbuild that city and section. Many cities tried hard to get him to locate with them, but Mr. Spencer chose Waco out of the entire list.

Mr. Spencer is a native of the state of Virginia, a member of one of the old and honored families there, was born in Prince Edward county on May 28, 1858, and when the family came to Texas in the early youth of Mr. Spencer they settled in Falls county near Blue Ridge, which was near what is now Marlin. Mr. Spencer finished his education later state, and especially in Central Texas, the encompassing section of the great city of Waco.

Directors' Meeting of Cotton Palace Is Postponed

The directors of the Texas Cotton Palace association were to have met last night but the meeting has been postponed, by order of President Tom F. Rush, on account of the absence from the city of Secretary S. N. Mayfield. The meeting will be held within a day or two in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The matters up for discussion will relate, in the main, to finances.

W. J. Neale, who has recently returned from New York, will probably report on his commission to confer with agencies looking for the biggest bands of the country.

The Folly Of Taking Digestive Pills

A Warning to Dyspeptics.

The habit of taking digestive pills after meals makes chronic dyspepsia of many thousands of men and women because artificial digestants, drugs and medicines have practically no influence upon the excessively acid condition of the stomach contents which is the cause of most forms of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The after dinner pill merely lessens the sensitivity of the stomach nerves and thus gives a false sense of freedom from pain. If those who are subject to indigestion, gas, flatulence, belching, bloating, heartburn, etc., after eating would get about an ounce of pure bismuthated magnesia from their druggist and take a teaspoonful in a little water after meals, there would be no further necessity for drugs or medicines because bismuthated magnesia instantly neutralizes stomach acidity, stops food fermentation and thus insures normal, painless digestion by enabling the stomach to do its work without hindrance.

INDOOR LIFE MAKES FAT

TRY OIL OF KOREIN TO KEEP WEIGHT DOWN OR TO REDUCE SUPERFLUOUS FAT.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precautions to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air is said to weaken the oxygen carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce food fermentation and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight, you are really drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any persons who are satisfied in their own mind that they are stout are advised to go to Morrison Drug Co., or a good druggist and get a box of oil or korein capsules and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, improved digestion and a return of the old energy; footprints become lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of Korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.

ONLY CONTEST IS FROM HAWAII.

The national committee held a session today as a preliminary to the opening of the convention on Wednesday and formally arranged for the temporary organization. Former Governor Martin Glynn of New York was officially named as temporary chairman and the man who will start the convention and campaign with the "keynote" speech. Only one seat—that in the Hawaii delegation—among the 1922 in the convention was contested before the committee. Two contests for places on the new national committee were deferred for decision by the new committee when it meets immediately after the final convention session.

St. Louis took on a real convention atmosphere today. Hotels were thronged with arriving delegates, bands played and marching clubs paraded. Flags were hung from every pole and streamers of bunting decorated buildings and hotels.

The convention hall is ready for the delegates and scores of them visited it today. There is the usual heavy demand for tickets and national committee men who obtained their allotments today found that there were other sides of politics than the building of platforms and the making of slates.

LOVE-POINDEXTER CONTEST IS REFERRED.

Cato Sells, Texas national committeeman, informed the national committee that Thomas Love and William Poindexter, who were contesting the seat for national committeeman as his successor were not present and asked Chairman McCombs for a ruling as to how the committee desired to proceed in determining the contest.

Chairman McCombs appointed Senator Thomas Tamm of Indiana, Norman E. Mack of New York, and National Committeeman W. F. Sapp of Kansas a sub-committee to hear both sides and report to the new national committee, which will meet after the last session of the convention.

BELIEVED DELEON CAME TOO EARLY

Jacksonville Capitalist After Test Pays Good Compliment to Natural Vitality.

This is the compliment that Mr. Joseph Bell, a Jacksonville capitalist, whose address is Highway Branch P. O., pays to natural Vitality after he had taken the treatment:

"I felt Ponce deLeon had waited until natural Vitality had been discovered. I am sure he could have returned saying that he had really found the 'Fountain of Youth.' Vitality is the greatest and grandest remedy on the market. For years I have been bothered with rheumatism, indigestion and dizziness. I decided to give Vitality a trial, but first I found out whether or not it contained any alcohol, and to my surprise it was what I needed in every respect. Now I never have any of those ailments. I never had rheumatism; my indigestion has left me completely, those dizzy spells are gone; in fact, I feel all made over."

Multitudes of southern people are daily paying just such compliments as the foregoing to natural Vitality. It is a wonderful tonic and corrective and is Nature's shortest road to relief from many chronic ills. You can get Vitality at Powers-Kelly Drug Co., and all other druggists.

Two American cowboys who later escaped. The second raid occurred on Sunday morning at the T. A. Coleman ranch, forty miles northwest of Laredo, where the bandits attempted to drive off eighty horses. Reports last night indicated they failed in their purpose and that the bandits themselves succeeded in re-entering Mexico. Advice today were to the effect that the outlaws had not crossed to the southern side of the Rio Grande but had attempted to burn bridges on the International and Great Northern line east of Laredo.

A fug captured by the civilian posse who captured the bandits, three of whom were killed, is red with diagonal white stripes and bears the words "Liberty, equality and independence." The flag is said to have been adopted by De La Rosa and will be submitted as evidence at the trials of the bandits.

Waco Will Get Credit for 115 Recruits at Training Camp

The Waco recruiting station of the civilian's camp which began at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, yesterday will receive credit for 115 recruits, although the actual attendance will be thirty-seven from this district. This condition grows out of the fact that a large number of the men in the two militia companies, K and G, had signed for the civilian camp before they were called to the border for active service. Because of the fact that these men had signified their intention of taking the summer course in army tactics and are now serving, this division is given credit by the army department for the total number of enlistments in the standings of the various civilian camps. Charles P. Link has had the recruiting in charge.

CORPORATION HAS MODEST START.

R. B. Spencer, who founded the great lumber business of R. B. Spencer & Co., and who owns 80 per cent of this business in addition to immense holdings in other lines, started first in the lumber business at Dublin, Texas, in 1890, this Erath county yard being the foundation sill so to speak on which the immense structure has since been reared, and which now embraces thirty-five yards scattered over a wide and fertile area in Texas. The second yard was established at Granbury, Hood county, and the third at Marlin, the spread being very rapid under the skillful and energetic management of Mr. Spencer. This continued until now nearly two score yards are in operation in Texas and Oklahoma, the volume of business being tremendous.

Mr. Spencer remained in Dublin until about seven years ago, when in looking about for a field for larger operations he decided that Waco had the future, and right wisely did he decide in this as in other matters, vindicating his clear judgment and hard common sense once more. While in Dublin Mr. Spencer was president of the Citizens National bank, vice president of the Dublin National bank, and was the major of the industrial and thriving little city for eight years.

Coming to Waco in 1909 Mr. R. B. Spencer was elected vice president of the Central Texas bank, which is now the Central Texas Exchange National bank, with a capital of $600,000, a position which he still holds. He was also president of the Central Texas Exchange National Trust company, with a capital of $350,000, until the concern liquidated; he was also president of the Farmers and Merchants State bank at Bremont and that bank liquidated. He was active in other directions also, and was the first president of the Waco Morning News company.

MR. SPENCER IS COURTEOUS GENTLEMAN.

While known as one of the best business men in Texas, Mr. Spencer yet takes time for the social amenities and enjoyments of life, and is a man of easy approach, much affability and geniality, and quickly relaxes from the distraction of business, which probably accounts for his uniform good humor and good health. The expressions of the people of Dublin, when Mayor R. B. Spencer announced his intention of removing to another field, showed the deep regret which was felt in every quarter, and testimony was borne to the manner in which he had labored to uplift that city and section. Many cities tried hard to get him to locate with them, but Mr. Spencer chose Waco out of the entire list.

Mr. Spencer is a native of the state of Virginia, a member of one of the old and honored families there, was born in Prince Edward county on May 28, 1858, and when the family came to Texas in the early youth of Mr. Spencer they settled in Falls county near Blue Ridge, which was near what is now Marlin. Mr. Spencer finished his education later in the public schools of Marlin, removing later to Whitney in Hill county, and in 1886 locating in Dublin. In 1886 he was married in Dublin to Miss Kate Lettimore, and his wife has been not only a faithful helpmeet but is a lady of that culture and refinement which serve as an inspiration and encouragement to any man who is battling in life with big problems and meeting great opportunities which always come to such men as R. B. Spencer when they swing into the current of development which is bearing Texas on to such a glorious future, and incidentally carrying men of large vision into realms of increasing effort and wider fields of endeavor. Waco is glad to have within her midst a citizen of such activity in moral and such energetic action in financial fields, and of such broadness of vision in seeing upon and utilizing successfully the opportunities which are unfolding in this state, and especially in Central Texas, the encompassing section of the great city of Waco.

DROWNED MAN COMES FROM OLD FAMILY WELL KNOWN HERE

The drowning at Galveston a few days ago of Herbert L. Parsons recalls the fact that young Parsons was known in Waco, and also recalls the fact that Gen. William Henry Parsons, organizer and head of the famous Texas cavalry brigade of that name, lived in Waco before the war, during the war and until about two years after that memorable struggle. Some of his relatives still live in Waco, being the family of William H. Byrd, living at 1615 North Fifth street. Mr. Byrd's father, A. J. Byrd, married Miss Mary Parsons, only sister of General Parsons, and was mayor of Waco from 1874 to 1877, two terms.

Herbert Parsons, who was drowned in Galveston, was the son of Harry Parsons, and therefore a grandson of General William H. Parsons. Harry Parsons, when his father left Waco for Houston, after the war, was probably about seventeen years of age, said Mr. Byrd yesterday. Herbert Parsons, who was drowned in Galveston bay while out floundering last Friday night was a superb swimmer, but must have become entangled in some obstruction. He rescued probably two score of people during the Galveston storm and in the storm several years ago rescued about a dozen, through his expert swimming and cool head. Harry Parsons, his father, will be recalled by many of the older residents here, as will his grandfather, Gen. W. H. Parsons.

General Parsons served in the Mexican war in the cavalry service, coming to Texas after the Mexican war. He was a lawyer and a West Pointer, having both the theory and practice of war. The city was broke out and he joined the Confederate hosts in their struggle for state's rights. During the Civil War he made for himself an imperishable name and fame, and many Confederates are still living who will testify to his dash, valor and military knowledge and experience. After the war he served in the state senate, and he held a substantial portfolio at Newport News, during the Cleveland administration and under President Grover Cleveland. He died in Chicago October 2, 1909, at the ripe old age of 54 years.

"Alice in Wonderland."

We just want to tell the little folks of Waco how many, many of their good friends will come with little Alice to the Hippodrome today.

There is the White Rabbit, of course, for nobody could think of Wonderland without the White Rabbit and his horn. He wears his little vest with the red hearts on it, too. Then there is the Mad Hatter with his big "beegum" hat who has the Mad March Hare and Alice, and others to his famous tea. The Walrus and the Carpenter go to take a walk down by the seashore, and while the Carpenter tells his story the little oysters and the Walrus weep and the Carpenter tells the little oysters on the sly. Humpty sits on the wall and there Alice finds him an disunited whether to tell him he had a pretty tie or pretty belt, for because of his shape she could not tell at all which it was that he wore.

Then Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee have their wonderful flight under the trees and very soon the crow flies over, which they think a cloud and they hide under their big umbrella. The mice, lion, owls and lizards are all there in their right places, and the old caterpillar eats away on his leaf in sleepy content and then smokes his pipe. The Queen of Hearts insists that her tarts are stolen and Alice presides at the trial to discover the knave who was guilty. Later the Cheshire Cat sits on the limb and grins at Alice until she is quite out of patience, so she goes to the croquet game where the players use soldiers for wickets, hedgehogs for balls and flamingoes for mallets, and later finds the Duchess and her baby that can turn into a pig. There are just so many people in Wonderland that we cannot mention all of them, but all you kiddies know who they are. And the big thing is that they will be at the Hippodrome to see you.

JOBBER'S UNABLE TO BUY GASOLINE IN LARGE QUANTITIES

Washington, June 12.—Independent oil jobbers testified today before the federal trade commission that they were unable to buy gasoline from the refineries except in small quantities and that in spite of the increasing prices of the last year that actual profits had been no greater than in former years.

The scramble of the selling branch of the industry to keep up with the increases of the refiners had so unsettled the trade, the witnesses added, that those who have been able to withhold their gasoline from the market could show a much greater profit. In many cases, they declared, jobbers were forced to orders from refiners at higher prices than they were then receiving from their customers, depending for their profits on the increases which came before the refiners could deliver their orders.

Representatives of the Western Oil Jobbers' association and the Independent Oil Men's association were the first to testify in the two-day hearing which will mark the close of an investigation which has been under way by the commission for some time. Independent refiners and representatives of the Standard Oil companies of New Jersey, New York and Ohio are expected to testify tomorrow.

No attempt was made in today's proceedings to inquire into the underlying causes for the increases of price of more than 150 per cent during the last year, witnesses testifying only as to the operators of the jobbers.

E. E. Grant, secretary of the Independent Oil Men's association, said independent refiners had usually kept pace with the increases of prices set by the Standard Oil company.

H. S. Collins of Knoxville, Iowa, testified that the increase in prices had not affected the demand for gasoline but that the dealers were unable to buy.

All the witnesses agreed that they had been told that the Standard Oil concerns had to withhold their product for their regular customers.

My squad looks after the sanitation of the camp, the shower bath, ice water, and all food and supplies. We have to see that everything is done up on time and that all is in sanitary shape. JOBBER UNABLE TO BUY GASOLINE IN LARGE QUANTITIES

Washington, June 12.—Independent oil jobbers testified today before the federal trade commission that they were unable to buy gasoline from the refineries except in small quantities and that in spite of the increasing prices of the last year that actual profits had been no greater than in former years.

The scramble of the selling branch of the industry to keep up with the increases of the refiners had so unsettled the trade, the witnesses added, that those who have been able to withhold their gasoline from the market could show a much greater profit. In many cases, they declared, jobbers were forced to order from refiners at higher prices than they were then receiving from their customers, depending for their profits on the increases which came before the refiners could deliver their orders.

Representatives of the Western Oil Jobbers' association and the Independent Oil Men's association were the first to testify in the two-day hearing which will mark the close of an investigation which has been under way by the commission for some time. Independent refiners and representatives of the Standard Oil companies of New Jersey, New York and Ohio are expected to testify tomorrow.

No attempt was made in today's proceedings to inquire into the underlying causes for the increases of price of more than 150 per cent during the last year, witnesses testifying only as to the operators of the jobbers.

E. E. Grant, secretary of the Independent Oil Men's association, said independent refiners had usually kept pace with the increases of prices set by the Standard Oil company.

H. S. Collins of Knoxville, Iowa, testified that the increase in prices had not affected the demand for gasoline but that the dealers were unable to buy.

All the witnesses agreed that they had been told that the Standard Oil concerns had to withhold their product for their regular customers.

Baraca-Philathea Classes Condemn Lynching

The lynching of the negro by a mob on May 15, was unreservedly condemned in a resolution passed at a meeting of the Baraca-Philathea union last night. The resolution stated that the union as representing some six hundred Christian young people, abhorred "every form of mob violence, and every act of this particular mob," although the boy's crime "was most horrible and no lawful punishment was too bad for the perpetrator."

The meeting of the union was held at the Herring Avenue Christian church, all the classes in the city having a representative except two.

The next meeting of the union will be at the Brook Avenue Baptist church Monday, July 10. J. R. Jenkins and C. H. Machen will represent the Baraca-Philathea City Union of Waco at the World-Wide Baraca-Philathea convention at Minneapolis.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the "most expensive soap or anything else you can use."

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

BAYLOR HAS LARGE TERM ENROLLMENT

With a gain of about fifty per cent over the enrollment of the first day for last year, the Baylor authorities feel that the opening of the summer term yesterday promises the best summer session in the history of the institution. The enrollment on the first day for last year's summer session was 329, while 456 students enrolled yesterday, of whom more than 200 were listed for regular college work.

Dean J. L. Kesler of the college, presided at the opening at 9 o'clock, and welcomed the students and a number of friends and alumni who were on the campus. All of the classes will meet for work and recitation today, beginning at 7:30 this morning, both in the normal and the summer school.

A large number of special attractions in the way of lectures, recitals, etc., which will be given during the summer term were announced, and the friends of the university in the city were especially invited to attend them.

A large and attractive schedule of courses have also been worked out and the students are taking advantage of the opportunities now offered to make the summer quarter's work one of the most profitable, varied and interesting of the whole year.

The first of the series of recitals by the members of the fine arts faculty was given last evening at 8:15 by Professor Rudolf Hoffmann, pianist, and John De Heck, tenor. Both are well known to Waco people through their leading part in the various musical affairs of the city, and quite a large number of friends were present from the city, as well as a crowd of Baylor students.

Goldstein-Migel June Mark-Down Sale Has Remarkable Beginning

The thirtieth annual June Mark-Down sale was inaugurated yesterday at the Goldstein-Migel store, with every prospect of being the greatest and most successful sale ever conducted by the big Austin street firm.

Fifteen minutes after the store opened the aisles were crowded, and all during the day the crowd continued to come. Since the morning it was necessary to discontinue the issue of transfers, in order that the busy clerks in the congested transfer department could stem the flood of packages which constantly poured in upon them. Special cash registers installed in the main aisles of the first floor relieved a strain which otherwise would have overtaxed the capacity of the cashiers and wrappers at the central wrapping stations; and a force of salespeople and floor walkers almost double the number regularly employed by the big store, protude of buyers.

Louey Migel, vice president of the store, expressed himself as highly gratified with the splendid beginning of the big sale, and attributed it to the extensive advertising which the sale has had, combined with the all-time statewide reputation gained by the sale through the thirty successive years it has been conducted.

Extensive preparation had been made to handle the large crowds and the enormous volume of sales, and customers found the service remarkably quick and efficient, considering the demands that were made upon it. Once during the morning it was necessary to discontinue the issue of transfers, in order that the busy clerks in the congested transfer department could stem the flood of packages which constantly poured in upon them. Special cash registers installed in the main aisles of the first floor relieved a strain which otherwise would have overtaxed the capacity of the cashiers and wrappers at the central wrapping stations; and a force of salespeople and floor walkers almost double the number regularly employed by the big store, protude of buyers.

Plans Already Being Made for Queen's Ball at 1916 Exposition

E. F. Carroll, director in charge of the Queen's Ball of the Texas Cotton Cotton Palace in 1916 has announced the following committees for this big feature:

Executive committee, Holt Massey, chairman; Mrs. A. W. Koch and Mrs. Ben K. Jennings. Committee on Duties, W. R. Wigley, Ross Padgett, Will D. Lacy, Jr., Coman Shear and the Port. Committee on decorations, Mrs. Marion Herz.

The unusually strong committees just named will have a great responsibility on their shoulders, and much work remains to be done before that responsibility is discharged. The Queen's Ball has always been an elaborate affair and each year it has grown in importance and brilliancy. The committees have been wisely chosen, they have the advantage of an early organization, and the assurance of co-operation on every side. Plans are already under way to present this spectacular feature in a magnificent manner, which will embody many new ideas.

FAREWELL OF PRISCILLAS FOR MRS. JOHN D. JOHNSON

Mrs. R. S. Ross called together the Priscillas for a farewell party to Mrs. John D. Johnson, who is on the eve of her departure for Spokane. A puzzle, which formed a "P" when properly put together, kept the ladies busy for a time and furnished the initial letter in the honoree's name. A sample formed of cross-stitch in the form of a list of needlecraft, was worked out by Mrs. Johnson, who won the prize for having the longest list of accomplishments in that line. The favor was a sachet made of flowers from the old-fashioned garden for which the Rosses are famous.

LINEN SHOWER GIVEN FOR JUNE BRIDE

Miss Leta Jaynes of 1500 North Twelfth bespoke the June bride, Miss Beulah Lankford, and assembled about twenty of her most intimate friends for a shower in her honor. Carnations were used throughout the house, and another decorative touch was given in a maze of ribbon which, when followed, led to an exquisite collection of linen for the bride-to-be. Each guest brought a tested recipe to be placed in the prettiest little book which had been prepared for this purpose.

The musical program consisted of piano selections by Misses Annie Laster and Mary Freeman. Vocal numbers were contributed by Misses Katie Hill and Eula Finley.

WEDDING AT ROBINSON IS SOCIETY EVENT

The quiet home wedding of Miss Mabel Virginia Fisher and Mr. George Andrews was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Rollo Greig of Waco matronized and received only the intimate friends and relatives. Ferns and palms formed a lovely bower where the toils of this bride and groom were plighted. Rev. Mr. Mayhew of Lorena, the family pastor, performed the ceremony. The bride was costumed in white taffeta combined in Georgette crepe and was a pretty picture in her conventional bridal attire. The song, "At Dawn," was given by Mr. Haygood of Waco, and was a beautiful addition to the ceremony. This happy couple will be at home to their many friends at Robinson.

MRS. DE STEIGER HONOREE AT GARDEN PARTY

Mrs. De Steiger and children of San Marcos, are on a two weeks' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore of South Third street. In recognition of her visit the relatives and immediate neighbors were called in for a garden party on Saturday evening. The lawn was cozy with rugs and chairs and gardenieres of fresh cut blossoms. The younger set danced and frolicked on the lawn to the music of a dainty band while the elders were no less happy in their quiet chat of things past and present. This was a congenial gathering and Mrs. De Steiger a charming guest. Cooling punch with angel food cake were served at intervals by little Misses Genie and Annie Louise De Steiger, Jane Dodd Moore, Elizabeth Burrows and Mary Louise Moore.

Chairman Kimbrough, of the lawyers' committee on law reforms, has submitted proposals which, if adopted, will go far to improve the efficiency of the courts. The real lawyers of the state are waking up to the fact that the people will no longer tolerate the existing chaotic conditions, and that the demand upon the next legislature for a change will be imperative. It behooves every thinking lawyer to aid in the effort to make the change for the better instead of for worse.

Chairman Kimbrough, of the law-submitted proposals which, if adopted will go far to improve the efficiency of the courts. The real lawyers of the state are waking up to the fact that the people will no longer tolerate the existing chaotic conditions, and that the demand upon the next legislature for a change will be imperative. It behooves every thinking lawyer to aid in the effort to make the change for the better instead of for worse.

to Indians Do Not Carry Citizenship

Washington, June 12.—Holding that Indians are not made citizens of the United States by receipt of allotments of land, the supreme court today sustained an indictment against Fred Nixon, charged with selling liquor at Carter, S. D., to George Cortier, a Sioux, with allotted land. The defense claimed that the state law applied to the case.

Addresses Heads
Of Traffic Bureau

Austin, June 12.—Railroad Commissioner William D. Williams in an address to the heads of the traffic bureaus of the various cities of Texas, who held a meeting here today, discussed the Shreveport rate case and declared that the interstate commerce commission has nothing to do with results in Texas of the Shreveport equalization, unless such results produce interstate discriminations. The situation within the state is to be dealt with by the state railroad commission, which alone has that power, said Commissioner Williams.

bert of New York for a building for the department of education, set November 29, 1916, as the date for the inauguration of President-elect R. E.
Vinson, and approved other recommendations made by Acting President

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York, June 12.—An early decline carried prices of October contracts off to 12.88 in the cotton market here today but prices then steadied with October selling up to 12.95 and closing at 12.93. The general list closed steady at a decline of 1 to 5 points prices here sold off to a net loss of 8 to 10 points. This was the result of rather active selling by a prominent local commission house who was supposed to be liquidating either a local or southern long line and whose selling during the first hour was estimated at nearly 20,000 bales. Liverpool was a moderate buyer and there also was a little support from spot houses on the decline, which carried July off to 12.73 and December to 13.05, or about 12 to 13 points under the best point reached on the basis of Saturday.

Prices steadied late in the morning on coverings that foreboding up to 12.88 and December to 13.11 or back to within 2 or 3 points of Saturday's close.

Trading was quiet and with fluctuations narrow and irregular.

Closing prices showed reactions of 2 or 3 points from the best.

WHEAT

Chicago, June 12.—Assertions that the Kansas and Nebraska yield for 1916 would be much nearer to the 1915 total than had been generally expected did a good deal today to cause a decline in the wheat market here. As a result, the close, though unsettled, was 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 net lower, with July at $1.03 and September at $1.04. Corn lost 1/4 to 1/2 c and oats finished 1/4 off to a shade advance. Provisions closed at a rise of 27 to 82c.

Estimates made by a leading authority today put the Kansas wheat crop at 105,000,000 bushels, as against 105,000,000 last year. Nebraska was figured at 60,000,000 bushels, a decrease of 6,000,000 bushels.

Right from the start prices had a downward swing, influenced by easier cables, favorable weather and the slowness on shipping demand.

Corn declined with wheat. A rally which wiped out most of the loss ensued, however, when the wheat situation was posted showing a much larger decrease than at the corresponding time last year.

Favorable crop reports tended to weaken the oats market. Higher prices on hogs prompted a sharp advance in provisions.

COTTON

New York, June 12.—An early decline carried prices of October contracts off to 12.83 in the cotton market here today but prices then steadied with October selling at 12.25 and closing at 12.83.

The general list closed steady at a net decline of 2 to 5 points for the day.

Cables were lower than due and after opening barely steady at a decline of 1 to 5 points prices here sold off to a net loss of 9 to 10 points. This was the result of rather a slow selling by a prominent local commission house who was supposed to be liquidating either a local or southern long line and whose selling during the first hour was estimated at nearly 20,000 bales. Liverpool was a moderate buyer and there also was a little support from spot houses on the decline, which carried July off to 12.73 and December to 13.05, or about 12 to 13 points under the best point reached on the bulge of Saturday.

Prices steadied late in the morning on covering, with July working up to 12.80 and December to 13.11 or back to within 2 or 3 points of Saturday's close.

Trading later was very quiet, with fluctuating narrow and irregular.

Closing prices showed reactions of 2 or 3 points from the best.

New Orleans, La., June 12.—The cotton market was rather heavy today, and selling of a special nature made its appearance, sending prices at their lowest 8 to 10 points under the close of last week.

Large traders were putting out short cotton on good crop prospects and another level of a special nature made its appearance, sending prices at their lowest 8 to 10 points under the close of last week.

Pressure was heaviest early in the session. Toward noon the market made almost a full recovery, going back to within 1 point of Saturday's last quotations. The close was at a net loss of 2 to 4 points.

The weather map was considered favorable and private crop accounts for the most part were optimistic, but developed a considerable volume of offerings from room traders.

F. L. BOOTH CHOSEN ROTARIAN PRESIDENT

NEW PRESIDENT AND J. M. PENLAND SELECTED AS DELEGATES TO CONVENTION.

Postmaster C. B. McCollum Makes Talk on the Local Postal Department.

With a show of pomp and ceremony, the following officers for the ensuing term of the Rotary club were selected and inaugurated at the regular meeting at the State House yesterday: F. L. Booth, president; J. W. Tabor, vice president; John Wright, treasurer, and H. M. Cox, secretary. On behalf of the club, Dr. I. L. McGlasson presented the retiring president, B. C. Nettles, with a beautiful lunch set in wicker automobile carrier.

To represent the Waco Rotarians at the annual convention in Cincinnati, President Booth and J. M. Penland, candidate for district governor, were chosen as delegates and Vice President Tabor and Secretary Cox were named as alternates.

"The Waco Postal System" was the subject of the address by Postmaster C. B. McCollum, speaker of the day. Mr. McCollum told of the many sided responsibilities of the postmaster and of the enormous volume of business that was handled by the Waco office. He said that the parcel post volume had increased 300 per cent during April as compared with October of last year.

Explaining why it was impossible for certain of the outlying residence sections of Waco to have free delivery, Mr. McCollum said that one of the federal requirements for city delivery was that the sections must have cement sidewalks, house numbers, crossings, must be closely populated, etc.

The postmaster said that the business men could co-operate with the postoffice by using more care in addressing their mail, putting it in the office according to the outgoing train schedule to insure promptness, etc. He illustrated what he meant by accurate addressing, by referring to the Amicable building. A letter should have the room number on it, if possible, in this case. He offered his co-operation as postmaster to the business men and assured them that any complaint would have a hearing from the Waco postmaster.

P. G. Taylor acted as toastmaster for the luncheon. Among the informal talks was a word from a new member, A. C. Patton, and a response from W. V. Crawford on the question, "What Happened to Teddy?"

The Waco delegation to the international convention was instructed to take up certain matters in regard to the official Rotary magazine.

Tom Wolfe was named as the toastmaster for the next weekly meeting of the club. A. A. Davis will be the speaker for the hour and E. L. Wallis will give the day's thought.

Waco Library Still Hopeful for Carnegie Appropriation

"We are still hopeful that Waco will get the money with which to enlarge the Waco Carnegie library, but the management of the Carnegie fund is complaining that Texas libraries, with seven exceptions, have not complied with their promises as to what they would do in maintaining, caring for and expanding keeping up interest in the libraries of the Carnegie generosity in this state; Waco, however, is one of the seven libraries which is booked as being not delinquent in its promises."

This is the way President I. A. Goldstein of the Waco Carnegie library association spoke yesterday when asked about the situation in the state, arising from statements to the effect that no more money was available for this state for library purposes.

It is believed that the libraries which are delinquent in their promises will do better, and that when the time comes Waco will get the money needed for enlargement, in connection with a fund for this purpose to be raised locally at that time.

C. W. Payne Will Take Up Residence in City of Dallas

C. W. Payne and family left Waco yesterday for Dallas, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. Payne has been tendered and has accepted the position there of chief clerk in the commercial department of the Rock Island railroad, a position of trust and responsibility, and that is what takes him to Dallas. He said yesterday that he left Waco with deep regret, after a long residence here. That he will make good is felt certain by his friends, and they really think that he will get something still better if he decides to remain with this big railroad concern.

Pigs Are Scarce But Chamber Commerce Will Distribute

It is interesting to note that despite the hustle which has been in evidence for pigs in this country, not more than two-thirds of the boys who want the little porkers are able to get them, the demand exceeding the supply by far. Extraordinary efforts are still being put forth, however, to get pigs for the boys and thus encourage the raising of more hogs in the county, and the feeding of the people at home. If it is possible to get the pigs there will be another distribution of the pigs to the boys next Saturday, as usual.

Will Drill for Oil Near Moody Soon

Drilling for oil in the country near Moody, in McLennan county, is to start within a short time according to friends of L. C. Heydrick of Wichita Falls, an oil man who was here last week, and who is represented to have secured leases on lands in that part of the country for the purpose of testing out oil indications there.

Mr. Heydrick is said to be deeply interested in what he has seen near Moody, and will send in drilling machinery and see what can be done in testing out the proposition.

Here in Waco desultory talk is indulged in regarding another try near here, but nothing definite has yet come of it.

F. L. BOOTH CHOSEN ROTARIAN PRESIDENT

NEW PRESIDENT AND J. M. PENLAND SELECTED AS DELEGATES TO CONVENTION.

Postmaster C. B. McCollum Makes Talk on the Local Postal Department.

With a show of pomp and ceremony, the following officers for the ensuing term of the Rotary club were selected and inaugurated at the regular meeting at the State House yesterday: F. L. Booth, president; J. W. Tabor, vice president; John Wright, treasurer, and H. M. Cox, secretary. On behalf of the club, Dr. I. L. McGlasson presented the retiring president, B. C. Nettles, with a beautiful lunch set in wicker automobile carrier.

To represent the Waco Rotarians at the annual convention in Cincinnati, President Booth and J. M. Penland, candidate for district governor, were chosen as delegates and Vice President Tabor and Secretary Cox were named as alternates.

"The Waco Postal System," was the subject of the address by Postmaster C. B. McCollum, speaker of the day. Mr. McCollum told of the many sided responsibilities of the postmastership and of the enormous volume of business that was handled by the Waco office. He said that the parcel post volume had increased 300 per cent during April as compared with October of last year.

Explaining why it was impossible for certain of the outlying residence sections of Waco to have free delivery, Mr. McCollum said that one of the federal requirements for city delivery was that the sections must have cement sidewalks, house numbers, crossings, must be closely populated, etc.

The postmaster said that the business men could co-operate with the postoffice by using more care in addressing their mail, putting it in the office according to the outgoing train schedule to insure promptness, etc. He illustrated what he meant by accurate addressing, by referring to the Amicable building. A letter should have the room number on it if possible, in this case. He offered his co-operation as postmaster to the business men and assured them that any complaint would have a hearing from the Waco postmaster.

P. G. Taylor acted as toastmaster for the luncheon. Among the informal talks was a word from a new member, A. C. Patton, and a response from W. V. Crawford on the question, "What Happened to Teddy?"

The Waco delegation to the international convention was instructed to take up certain matters in regard to the official Rotary magazine.

Tom Wolfe was named as the toastmaster for the next weekly meeting of the club. A. A. Davis will be the speaker for the hour and E. L. Wallis will give the day's thought.

Waco Library Still Hopeful for Carnegie Appropriation

"We are still hopeful that Waco will get the money with which to enlarge the Waco Carnegie library, but the management of the Carnegie library fund is complaining that Texas libraries, with seven exceptions, have not complied with their promise to what they would do in maintaining, caring for and otherwise keeping up interest in the libraries of the Carnegie generosity in this state; Waco, however, is one of the seven libraries which is booked as being not delinquent in its promises."

This is the way President I. A. Goldstein of the Waco Carnegie library association spoke yesterday when asked about the situation in the state arising from statements to the effect that no more money was available for this state for library purposes.

It is believed that the libraries which are delinquent in their promises will better, and that when the time comes Waco will get the money needed for enlargement, in connection with a fund for this purpose to be raised locally at that time.

C. W. Payne Will Take Up Residence in City of Dallas

C. W. Payne and family left Waco yesterday for Dallas, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. Payne has been tendered and has accepted the position of chief clerk in the commercial department of the Rock Island railroad, a position of trust and responsibility, and that is what takes him to Dallas. He said yesterday that he left Waco with deep regret after a long residence here. That he will make good is felt certain by his friends, and they really think that he will get something still better if he decides to remain with this big railroad concern.

Drilling for oil in the country near Moody, in McLennan county, is to start within a short time, according to friends of L. C. Mr. Heydrick is said to be deeply interested in what he has seen near Moody, and will send in drilling machinery and see what can be done in testing out the proposition.
